CLOTHING CONSTRUCTION/FASHION REVUE JUDGING/ PUBLIC REVUE INFORMATION - 2017

Monday, July 17th all clothing construction and fashion revue judging will be held. Clothing construction judging will be held at the Extension Office and fashion revue judging will be held at the 4-H/Senior Citizens Center. A schedule for clothing and fashion revue judging is enclosed.

CLOTHING CONSTRUCTION judging will begin at 8:00am. The judging schedule is enclosed. Please refer to the fair book for labeling instructions.

MODELING ASSISTANCE AND FASHION REVUE PRACTICE: At noon at the 4-H/Senior Citizens Center volunteers will work with 4-H members on modeling. All members will have a chance to practice modeling. (Be sure to bring the shoes you'll be wearing in the fashion revue judging so you will be comfortable walking and turning in those shoes.) Members will have the opportunity to practice modeling on the stage and moving to and from the judge's table.

FASHION REVUE: Judging of fashion revue begins at 1:00pm at the 4-H/Senior Citizens Center. Judges have been instructed to come early so that they can receive their instructions and be in place and ready to go by 1:00. We will try to start on time and stay on schedule, however, your patience is requested if judging runs early or late.

You will need an entry card for each outfit you are modeling. You may get entry cards at the Extension Office before Monday, or at the judging on Monday.

Please note page 29 of the fair book which has a list of items to be brought to the judging.

SOME THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW:

- Garment numbers will be used to identify your outfit. This number will be used on the sheet the judges utilize for evaluating your outfit instead of your name. You will need to have the correct number on with the group as listed on the schedule. After you appear in the outfit, the number must stay on it. Your number(s) are listed on the enclosed schedule. We will have the materials to make numbers at the registration table.
- You have been divided into groups within your division and age. The groups you are in and the times they should start are on the enclosed schedule.
- Before leaving fashion revue judging, you must complete a public revue script with detailed information on the outfit(s), talent, etc. you are presenting at public revue.
- Please bring clothing to the 4-H/Senior Citizens Center during setup on July 23rd or Foods Judging on July 24th to be displayed for the fair. Items should be brought on swivel hangers. Entry cards should be attached to garments and other items judged for construction. Members must have articles on display at the fair to collect ribbons and premium money.

FASHION REVUE JUDGING PROCEDURE

- You have been placed in a group with other 4-H members in your age range. Your group will line up together, however, you will be judged on an individual basis.
- When it is your turn to model, hand all of your paperwork to the person who is assisting the judge. Then give the judge an overall look at your outfit by modeling. Be sure you make several turns, pausing with your back to the judge long enough for them to get a good look at the fit of your clothes. After you have finished modeling, step up to the judge's table and see if they have any questions. They may ask you why you chose the outfit, how much it cost, how you care for it, what you like best about it, etc. When the judge is finished interviewing you, he/she may ask you to model again before returning to your group.
- When all members of your group have finished their individual modeling and consultation with the judge, your group will walk back in front of the judge.
- As with any 4-H judging event, eye contact is important.
- The judges will assign you a purple, blue, red, or white ribbon just as they do in other divisions at the fair. You will not find out which ribbon you received until Thursday, July 20th at the 4-H Public Revue. (Purple ribbons are the exception as they will be called back.)
- The judges will select several garments throughout the afternoon to return at the end of the judging to be considered for Division Champion and Division Reserve Champion. Please do not leave the 4-H/Senior Citizens Center until the call backs from your group have been posted. Double check to see which number garment has been called back to be sure you model the correct garment. All call-backs are purple ribbon winners. You will not find out who has been named Division Champion or Division Reserve Champion until Public Revue on July 20th.
- You are encouraged to attend the practice scheduled ahead of judging. This will give you an opportunity to go up and down steps and practice on the stage. It is not always possible to stay on schedule so we ask that you arrive early and stay flexible throughout the day. We want to make sure everyone has time to visit with the judge about their project.
- Remember, if you have constructed your garment, it must be judged for construction in the morning in order for it to be entered in the fashion revue. As stated in the fair book, only garments can be modeled in this division. If you signed up to model a pillow or a bag, you were not included on the constructed fashion revue schedule for this reason.

PUBLIC REVUE: This is the fashion revue we hold for the public on Thursday, July 20th at 7:00pm. The event includes the announcement of clothing and fashion revue champions and crowning of the fair king and queen. Participation in this event is encouraged, but is not required. If participating, you must complete a public revue script with detailed information before leaving fashion revue judging.

Setup and decorating for Public Revue will be held on July 20th at 8:30am.

Public Revue practice is required for all participants and will be held on July 20th at 5:30pm. Please be on time for practice so we can run through the event before the public starts to arrive. If you are modeling two outfits in the Public Revue, you can find out which outfit you will be modeling first by visiting <http://www.geary.k-state.edu/4-h/fair.html> or contacting the Extension Office. This will allow you to come dressed and ready. Doors to the 4-H/Senior Citizens Center will be open at 5:00pm if you would like to bring clothes and get dressed there.
