

4-H OFFICER NOTEBOOKS REPORTER

Name:

Club:

BASIS OF AWARDS:

	Excellent	Good	Fair	Needs to Improve
Includes page that tells the club's name, reporter's name and year.
Includes table of contents.
Begins with October 4-H meeting.
Includes all items submitted for publication - printed or not - by the reporter about the club or members. (Reporter's book is distinctive from Historian's book.)
Writing quality - story should not read like the club minutes.
Book contains copy as submitted on left and the actual printed clipping on the right (facing) page. Include a clipping for every publication in which the report was printed.
The name of the newspaper and date are included for each clipping.
Reports submitted to newspaper in a timely manner.
Cover is attractive with name of club on the front.
Book is neatly done.

Comments:

Rating:

Purple

Blue

Red

White

Following the 4-H year, the Reporter's book should be placed along with the historian, secretary, and treasurer's books in a safe place to insure that a permanent record is retained for historical reference.