

Flint Hills Preservation Coalition Scholarship

Purpose: To provide one scholarship for higher education in the amount of $1,000.

Use: The scholarship must be used for starting or continuing an educational program beyond high school in an agricultural field.

Eligibility:

1. Must have been a Geary County 4-H member.
2. Must be a Geary County resident.
3. Must be a graduating senior or 4-H alumnus with full-time student status.
4. Must have a B average or above in the high school or post-secondary school he or she is attending.
5. High school seniors and those currently pursuing post-secondary education are welcome to apply.
6. Applicants who are high school seniors must have been enrolled in 4-H through 4HOnline by January 1st of the current 4-H year.

Selection: Selection of scholarship recipients will be as follows. A three member committee will be set up to evaluate the applications for the Flint Hills Preservation Coalition Scholarship and recommend a recipient. All committee members will be appointed by the Geary County Extension Council Executive Board. The committee will submit their recommended recipient to the Executive Board, and the Board will either accept or reject the recommendation.

Disbursement of Funds: Funds will be given in two installments, $500 first semester and $500 second semester. Before funds are released, scholarship recipients must prove enrollment in post-secondary education. In addition, before second semester funds are released, scholarship recipients must provide a transcript proving that he or she is maintaining a B average or above.

Applications: The Geary County 4-H Scholarship Application will be used. This form is available from the address below:
